

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/19/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: John

Last name: Nazar

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I live in a community whose economy is supported by the logging industry and I believe that increased regulations would have a direct negative impact on everyone from the gas stations to the sawmill to the grocery stores and hardware stores selling things like chainsaws and hydraulic fluid. I also believe that favoring old growth conditions over diverse conditions would decrease wildlife biodiversity and overall forest health.