

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/19/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Donald

Last name: Crawford

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This proposal goes against science and logic. It would destroy habitat for a number of species especially those that rely on young growth forest and diversity of habitat. The ruffed grouse and American woodcock would suffer greatly deer and turkey as well. This is bowing to extreme ideas like anti logging and climate extremists. I support a well diversified forest with a mix of aged classes and science based timber management