

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/20/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Michael

Last name: Guerriero

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Siuslaw National Forest provides, as it has regrown in the past 100 years, a carbon rich sink that will continue to grow and store atmospheric carbon. It is in our best interest to protect these stands of trees by including special guidance in the final document for carbon storehouse forests like the Siuslaw.