

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/20/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Peggy

Last name: Ruppe

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Here is the simple truth : It takes hundreds of years for trees to become old growth forests.

It is our duty to future generations to not only plant trees but to make sure our oldest trees are saved for posterity.

It seems like the forestry service should be about the business of saving and preserving our oldest trees.

The best way you can serve this country is to save these trees.