

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/20/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Marcy

Last name: Graham

Organization:

Title:

Comments: It's imperative that we protect carbon rich old growth forests in the Pacific Northwest. Intact old growth in the Siuslaw National Forest is naturally fire resistant due to high rainfall in this coastal ecosystem.

I'm also very concerned that the timber industry may undermine the proposed management process of "proactive stewardship" as a stakeholder, due to it's inherent commercial interests.

Thank you for your vigilance and consideration!