

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/20/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Barbara

Last name: Sloss

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please consider management of old growth forests that allows passive management, management that considers the ecology of each biological niche, management that protects future old growth, and management that uses science and research in making decisions. It is important for our forests to have diverse elements in the face of development and climate change.