

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/20/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Raul

Last name: Morlas

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please protect old growth forests, they are important part of our ecosystems and there is already not enough of them left. There is scientific proof that they offer healing properties and so much more to both people and their environment. Neither the timber industry nor the government have a right to continue depleting American forests of old growth - these belong to all US citizens and they have a right to remain without threat of logging.