

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/22/2024 11:42:13 PM

First name: Susan

Last name: Jordan

Organization:

Title:

Comments: It has been brought to my attention that there is a possible plan to mine in the Black Hills of South Dakota. In my estimation, mining would be a travesty in such a pristine and sacred area. This area should be preserved and conserved forever. Please reconsider this plan as it would harm the flora and fauna of the area as well as desecrate what is holy to Native Americans