

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/22/2024 11:58:05 PM

First name: Milo

Last name: Simone

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I support this Withdrawal. The beautiful landscape of the Black Hills should be considered a sacred, natural and cultural resource for the Lakota people and surrounding Native communities. Protection and maintenance of this land in its current state will ensure different developmental disturbances, such as affecting water quality and typical use of the area, can be stopped before they even begin.