

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/23/2024 12:37:47 PM

First name: Korie

Last name: Shokmalli

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Regarding the black hills project of toxic mining. This land is sacred to the Lakota people and as we, the US has treated them terribly since our arrival, let us begin to rectify that terrible treatment. They are steward of the land and it is sacred to them. Just as we would not conceive of putting a mine in the have of a church, temple or synagogue, please do not allow this on the Lakota people's sacred land.