

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/24/2024 5:52:03 PM

First name: Rosemary

Last name: Goeller

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Forests are important to clean air and habitats for wild animals. Chopping down & burning forests adds more carbon into the air. Think twice if you are concerned about global warming. Burning forests also injures & kills many animals. The ones that survive lose their homes. Consider these things before making rash decisions.