Comments: I urge you to support this withdrawal and to pass it on to the Secretary of the Interior as quickly as possible. It's important to preserve these pristine, sacred lands. We, as a country, have taken so much away from the Native American people, that it is our duty to help protect whatever we can of their sacred lands and culture. It's also important to preserve this area for recreational use by all citizens, and not have it go to a private mining company.
