Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/28/2024 8:41:47 PM
First name: Steven
Last name: Hata
Organization:
Title:
Comments: The pactola watershed is drinking water for Rapid City. It cannot be contaminated with toxic heavy metals due to mine runoff or leakage from heap leach pads into the upstream ground water. I am opposed to mining in a vital watershed that provides drinking water. The history of private and small publicly traded corporate mining has repeatedly failed environmental safety.