

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/3/2024 6:59:39 PM

First name: Dawn

Last name: Kludt

Organization:

Title:

Comments: the Need for Change and the Forest Service needs to change is to go back to an active working lands model of public land management and away from the failed preservationist model that currently informs decision making processes on the Wallowa-Whitman, Malheur and Umatilla National Forests. The current path that has amended the 1990 plans over the years has led to economic devastation of our communities, and ever shrinking opportunities for our families.