Comments: I commend the Forest Service on this far looking plan that takes into account the various different uses of this forest land. I am particularly excited about the plans for logging roads to become recreational trails. Although there are some "environmentalists" who believe that any logging is wrong, I who heartedly disagree. This plan presents a balanced approach that I believe will be better for the forest in the long run than 'benign neglect'.

Thank you to everyone who worked on this project!
