

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/23/2024 11:29:25 PM

First name: Chelsea

Last name: McKee

Organization:

Title:

Comments: We do not need any harmful or negligent amendments to the Northwest Forest Plan. Amendments were proposed without adequate oversight and ignore efforts by millions of people to protect natural spaces which inevitably benefits everyone. The logging and thinning of green spaces should be done mindfully and when appropriate, such as to sustain the health of the system, not purely for financial gain, especially when there are more sustainable options to consider.