

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/16/2025 12:05:11 AM

First name: Sarah

Last name: Ashe

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am deeply opposed to the Telephone Gap integrated Resource Project. There is an urgent need to retain trees, old growth woods now more than ever before. Carbon sequestration is critical to all our futures, and Vermont, priding itself on Green Mts, environmental stewardship and honoring those who were here long before white settlers has an obligation and extraordinary opportunity to let this area remain in its present natural state.