

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/17/2025 9:40:00 PM

First name: Arielle

Last name: Landsberg

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As a Vermont resident, I oppose the Telephone Gap Integrated Resource project because it will undoubtedly endanger wildlife and old growth forests that sequester carbon-which is essential to combatting climate change. I'm especially concerned about the negative impact the habitat destruction will have on endangered species like the Canada Lynx. Intact and unexploited, Vermont's forests have more value to the state.