Comments: I am commenting to express my support for the Questa to Red River Trail. It's an exciting opportunity to enhance outdoor recreation. There are few trails in the Questa area to hike, which is quite a shame since the area is so beautiful. As a teenager growing up there, I hiked all over those mountains and I "hiked"/walked along the river all along those pipes that lead from Questa to the Moly Mine. There was no trail, so it was rough! There were no set trails and no "trailheads"--When I heard a few years ago, that this proposed trail was in the works--I was elated!
