Comments: Montlure is my heaven on earth. I attended Montlure from 1980 to 1988 as a camper and as a counselor from 1990 to 2006. It is the place that I made memories with friends that I am still in touch with, where I solidified my faith in God, and became the woman that I am. All of my five children attended Montlure, my siblings all attended as well. It's where I wanted to get married in 1989 but ended up eloping. It is a place that all barriers fall and children can be loved wholly and completely, without any thoughts as to what they can do for someone. Children like me came away from this place every year a better person, a better Christian. Please allow this place to continue working its miracles for future generations.
