Comments: The Bob Marshall Wilderness Complex stands as one of the best areas in the National Wilderness Preservation System. For the Wilderness and its wildlife, limitations on current uses should be considered, and an analysis of impacts should expand beyond the river to include the entire corridor a quarter-mile on both sides of the river.

I commend the Forest Service for taking steps toward limiting impacts and gathering data regarding recreation overuse, and the agency should take this opportunity to research the impacts recreation is already having on Wilderness and wildlife, and act quickly to address the problems. Whether it is boats, planes, pack stock, or hikers, excessive recreation use will inevitably harm habitat and displace animals that rely on Wilderness.
