Comments: I have experienced the magic of Montlure secondhand in a number of ways in the past 15 years. I have attended work camps to restore the campus post-fire, I have had friends attend summer camp, and I have helped register campers for the past 4 years. Montlure Camp has been held at multiple sites while Greer has been under repair, but the magic of returning "home" last summer was unmatched. Parents were able to send their children to the same camp that they once attended. The generational legacy that Montlure has left and is leaving is irreplaceable.
