Comments: Montlure Camp for a long time, has been a magic place for children and other family members to have the opportunity to gather to relax, appreciate the mountainous scenery and engage in spritual teachings. Over the years, I have enjoyed the uniqueness of the Montlure site. I have worked with fellow attendees to make programs creative for all. I have watched the wildlife in the meadow and know that they are protected. I have seen children come and be thrilled by the open spaces, the wildlife and the closeness they receive from the other attendees. As they grow, they are encouraged to lead their fellow campers in the thoughtful teachings of Jesus Christ. In the different times we are living in, Montlure is just the place for all to work through any problems.
