Comments: Residing here on the East Coast, yeah we got a lot of snow at the moment here in Va Beach, but anyway... Being here at the beach there are a ton of tourists. I'm sure there are a lot of hikers and campers as well in the forest area. While trash & recycle bins serve their individual purpose, I was thinking to possibly set up a few compost sites. Give back to the earth! Reduce the waste and reuse what's still left. Just a suggestion.
