

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/14/2025 4:48:24 PM

First name: Jan

Last name: Warren

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The National forests are a treasure not to simply be used for extraction. Opening the forests are like opening pandora's box. The federal government has no mechanism or desire to enforce what and how the extractions will take place. The trees are sequestoring carbon and cleaning the air and offering habitat for the other creatures who live on the planet with us.