

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/15/2025 6:35:22 PM

First name: Sarah

Last name: Vautaux

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Trees are one of the most undervalued, overused life form on this earth. We are dependent upon them for the air we breathe, the management of elements such as carbon, the stabilization of soils, the cycling of waters, shelter from the elements. Managing state and federal lands for generations to come must be of the highest priority. Please make decisions for the next 7 generations, at the very least. Thank you.