

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/15/2025 9:13:12 PM

First name: Jennifer

Last name: Gordon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Mitigating the damage of our climate emergency means protecting forests and watersheds from logging of any kind on public lands. Tribal sovereignty of some of these lands is also crucial to respect. We know that the forests are the 'lungs' of our earth, necessary for carbon sequestration and future life on our planet. Logging of our old growth and public forests accelerates climate chaos. Please stop these life-killing practices. Thank you!