

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/18/2025 3:02:23 AM

First name: Stanley P.

Last name: Morgan

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am vehemently opposed to the proposed changes to the forestry plan for the Pacific Northwest. Our forests have already suffered greatly under the chainsaw and our old growth, which provides irreplaceable habitat and other benefits, are far, far too few already. Our national plan should be restoration and responsible harvesting, not wholesale destruction. The Pacific Northwest is already suffering the effects of climate change and cannot afford to lose its forest.