Comments: i wonder why all this makes sense here i really think there is enough skiable area already think impact on the whole area schools etc. how many people would really use all this?? i am against it leave Teton canyon alone please . too much smaller manageable think of quality of life for people here reason to want to come here in stead of too busy and built up like other ski meccas . think wild life too. i love this place but all this scares me can afford to stay here??? please go slow my thoughts jan tice
