Comments: I am in full support of Grand Targhee's expansion project. As a skier I think the industry has been handcuffed by regulation. Their expansion is good for Idaho and Wyoming and the people living with the area of impact. In the West we have plenty of public lands to recreate in.

I argue that the ski resort should have the opportunity to buy the land from the US. In fact I would like to see opportunities for more ski resorts to be built in the west where we have more than enough land to sell to potential developers of ski resorts.
