

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/14/2025 5:29:50 PM

First name: Zack

Last name: Fields

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I support construction of a public use cabin at Herbert Glacier, and of construction of additional public use cabins throughout the Tongass National Forest. There is a significant undersupply of public use cabins, and expanding the number of cabins is great for families who live in Alaska and visitors as well.

Cabins that are in the backcountry are the most appealing, although the Herbert Glacier site should be easily accessible, including for families and the elderly.