

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/16/2025 2:16:35 AM

First name: Lynsey

Last name: Griswold

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Hands off Pe'sla! The land being considered for drilling is not only sacred and culturally important to the Lakota and Dakota Nations, but also biodiverse and ecologically significant for the entire region. Drilling would disrupt cultural and religious practices going back thousands of years, and destroy wildlife habitat that has been there much longer.