Comments: I, a red blooded American taxpayer, vehemently oppose the drilling of sacred land that belongs to the first people of this country, a land rich with resources meant for the people, the animals, and the sky. I vehemently oppose corporate abuse. I vehemently oppose the destruction of the earth for mega rich people's gain. I vehemently oppose any effort to derail, defund, and deny the treaties and agreements that protect the indigenous people who steward this land. And I condemn the work of legislators, lobbyists, and greedy corporations who support this effort.
