

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/19/2025 6:21:01 PM

First name: Melissa

Last name: Cullum

Organization:

Title:

Comments: We have already destroyed enough land for the grew of shareholders. We don't need to allow Canada to mine in our pristine wilderness especially when they have proven that they don't manage their mining projects well. Instead you could build a forest service cabin in that same area. A camp not only provides access to wild spaces, but it will help preserve it for all the animals and plants than rely on that area.