Comments: Dear Forest Service,

This is an old movie that everyone has seen several times. They come, time and again with expansion plans, all good ideas.....for them, the developers. A nick here and a slash there, inevitably, inexorably degrading wilderness. And one day you wake up and, poof, wilderness is gone.

People do not have to live here. Elk and there buddies have no choice. Please give wildlife more, much more consideration.

Respectfully,

Justin Adams
