

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/23/2025 1:39:22 PM

First name: Randy

Last name: Marchand

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please Please consider this and vote to protect

More than 91% of all proposed logging in the Lost River IRP is within two Inventoried Roadless Areas: one on the slopes of majestic Mt Moosilauke, and one surrounding beautiful Elbow Pond. Logging in roadless areas threatens water quality and floodwater retention, as well as habitat for interior forest species. No logging should ever occur in Inventoried Roadless Areas, period. These are among the wildest places left in New England and should be permanently protected.