

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/30/2025 11:20:29 AM

First name: Stacy

Last name: Nicoletta

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This project should be implemented ASAP. The Carbon River area, Ranger Station, and Mountain Rainier Park are vital to citizens of Washington state and the surrounding towns and cities. Management of public land is the obligation and responsibility of the state. Maintaining a balance for the natural resources to flourish while facilitating the public access is crucial to this area, and has a resonance far beyond the local impact.