

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/1/2025 1:26:45 AM

First name: Rebecca

Last name: Copper

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Mining in the Black Hills should not proceed. The lands do not belong to the United States government and are sacred ceremonial lands. In addition, the mining will have limited value which will only create costly outcomes. The detrimental impact of mining outweighs the small profits.