

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/9/2025 7:05:24 PM

First name: Josefina

Last name: Rios

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Black Hills are sacred and the Black Hills are unseeded territory! Treaties are the supreme law of the United States and this land therefore belongs to the Lakota and Dakota. The Forest service manages this land in violation of the supreme law of the USA. At the very minimum, the Forest Service can not give away land for mining that does not belong to them! In short, STOP this mining project!