

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/10/2025 12:09:51 PM

First name: Carola

Last name: Bauer

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Opening up uranium mining in the Black Hills is a huge mistake. Not just spiritually for the tribes, who have never recinded ownership of their claim to the land, and who are the rightful heirs to its future. But also physically, the land does not need to be destroyed anymore than it has. Uranium mining can do nothing but poison citizens, and permanently scar the land.