First name: Robert

Last name: Venables

Organization: Southeast Conference, Alaska!

Title:

Comments: Southeast Conference is the state and federally recognized economic development organization with over 200 members in the Southeast Alaska region. While we recognize (and applaud) the building of recreational cabins in the national forest, the location of this cabin seems in conflict with recently announced plans for potential development of nearby lands.

It would seem advisable to delay a decision and extend the public comment period to resolve this issue or reconsider the current site plans. Southeast Conference would be pleased to assist in more public, and industry, dialogue and appreciates your consideration of the matter.
