

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/13/2025 11:24:15 AM

First name: Dorothea

Last name: Leicher

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The sites of the proposed exploration belong to American Indian tribes who oppose the projects for cultural reasons but also because the project would likely pollute the areas water resources. Clean water is a necessity of life and under no circumstances should be sacrificed to the latest technological fad! Indigenous people have an enviable record of sustainability and we should learn from them instead of once again stealing from them. We will pay for it eventually!