Comments: I am a member of the Navajo Nation, and sacred sites should not be up to be sold, taken or confiscated, mined, built over, damaged, relocated or stolen from the original land keepers of the sacred site. We only have one place to call home and it's planet earth. Don't you think we've taken way too much from our mother? How much paper money does one need to fulfill this need of greed? Please leave these sites alone they're sacred for a reason.
