Comments: "The deed to Pe' Sla is held by the United States government as part of a federal Indian trust. The land is managed by the Great Sioux Nation (Oceti Sakowin). Specifically, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, a part of the United States Department of the Interior, made the decision to place Pe' Sla in federal Indian trust status in 2016, meaning the legal title is held by the federal government, but the land is managed for the benefit of the tribe. "

"The Black Hills was wrongfully seized, in violation of the Treaty of Fort Laramie, by the United States Congress in 1877 after gold was discovered."

Now, yet another valuable has surfaced and is my government again ready to break a contract again claiming a necessity? It's 2025, certainly by now Native peoples cant trust our contracts and agreements at last.
