

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/14/2025 12:12:52 AM

First name: Suzanne

Last name: richmnd

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The sacred lands of the Lakota are just that. Drilling and mining can't be undone. Have, at last, some respect and gratitude for the people and land we appropriated. My mother and grandmother were born in South Dakota. The family settled there after they came from Germany to make a new life. It's time to let a few special places stand as recognition of what we owe them.