

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/14/2025 1:28:58 AM

First name: Rosemary

Last name: Stuehmer

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Dear US Forest Service:

The stark and dramatic landscape of the Black Hills should be protected from prospective mining operations. Before any plans are drawn up, an Environmental Impact Study must be carried out. No mining activity can occur without significant damage to immediate and even outlying ecosystems and the potential damage should be itemized and made public.

Please do your duty to protect our land for future generations.

Sincerely,

R. Stuehmer