

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/15/2025 9:51:50 PM

First name: Megan

Last name: Esler

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Lakota people have very little say over many of their sacred sites. Do not take away and destroy a site that they have valued and protected again and again from business incursions. There are other options for graphite mining in the world. Let some other company find a neutral site and dig up this resource. This desecration and destruction is of concern to all eighically grounded people of the world...not only the Lakota.