

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/15/2025 11:37:27 PM

First name: Laura

Last name: Kelly

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Pe'sla is a federally recognized Indian trust site. Drilling here would disregard Native sovereignty over the land that has already been recognized as being within their jurisdiction. This would harm several Indian nations culturally and spiritually, as well as disrupt the ecosystem and risk water quality. This is a high risk low reward scenario and I strongly implore the US Forest Service to reject this proposal.