Comments: Pe'Sla is a sacred Lakota site in the Black Hills, revered for generations as a vital place of ceremony and prayer. The threat of mining exploration for graphite on this sacred land is a blatant act of oppression that we do not accept. This exploitation puts our water, wildlife, and spiritual lifeways at risk. We firmly reject this encroachment and commit to fight back, ensuring that the rights and heritage of the Lakota people are honored and protected. It's time to stand strong against these injustices and safeguard our sacred sites for future generations.

??No Mining on Lakota Sacred lands in the Black Hills??

??Respect Lakota Right to Sovereignty and Self Determination ??
