

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/16/2025 7:54:27 PM

First name: Anon

Last name: Shea

Organization:

Title:

Comments: You say you are for the people and for the land. What about the Lakota people, who have been through so much? Who know how to care for their land, and who hold this place sacred? Would you give up your god for money? Your church for scrap? This is their land, their spiritual place, their home. Their sacred land. Protect the land and the people from this destruction, please.